

Local Family Wins Rockwood Fold-Down Camper

One local family is taking full advantage of the most affordable way to vacation – RVing. PKF Consulting, an international consulting firm with expertise in travel and tourism, found that “typical RV family vacations are on average 27 to 61 percent less expensive than other types of vacations studied.

Cris and Cheryl Newman are the winners of a 2010 Rockwood Camper courtesy of Rockwood RV, Reicharts RV & Camping Center and WGAL. The unit was given away at the PA RV & Camping Show.

new RV. “We would like to take it to some music festivals,” Cheryl states. They also intend to visit some state parks in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

“We are planning on attending the show (PA RV & Camping Show) again next year,” Cris stated. “It’s a great show.”

Mark your calendars for the 2010 PA RV & Camping Show, America’s Largest RV Show, September 15 – 19 at the GIANT Center<sup>SM</sup> in Hershey, PA and visit www.largestRVshow.com for more information. Perhaps you’ll be next year’s lucky camper giveaway winner!

And for first-time RVers Cris and Cheryl Newman of Dallastown, PA, the cost of RVing just became extremely reasonable. The Newmans are the lucky winners of the 2010 fold-down Rockwood camper given away at the PA RV & Camping Show and sponsored by WGAL, Rockwood RV and Reicharts RV & Camping Center of Hanover, PA.

“It was our first visit to the show,” Cris Newman says of the PA RV & Camping Show. “We saw the unit and decided to enter the contest.” Cheryl Newman attributes their win to her special entry form folding technique and just plain luck.

The Newmans are not strangers to the outdoors. They have gone tent camping in the past but decided it was time to upgrade to an RV. The happy winners are already making plans for their

###