

RV & Camping Guide Available

Camp Hill, PA---The Pennsylvania RV and Camping Association (PRVCA) has released its 2007 Explore Pennsylvania. The 52 page publication is a must for all RV, camping and outdoor enthusiasts. The annual issue of Explore Pennsylvania has information for the RVing new-comer and the seasoned veteran alike. Feature articles include tips on how to retire in style and plan weekend adventures as well as a review of the latest in camping products. The guide also contains a full PRVCA membership directory connecting readers to campgrounds, dealers, suppliers, manufacturers and much more. The directory is divided into five districts, Southeastern, Northeastern, Central, Southwestern and Northwestern Pennsylvania. The guide also highlights local attractions, museums, festivals and events throughout the state.

PRVCA is a nonprofit corporation representing nearly 400 RV dealers, manufacturers, campgrounds, component part suppliers, lenders, insurance and service companies. PRVCA's mission is to enhance the recreation vehicle and camping industry through education and promotion by being a resource and partner to all segments of the recreation vehicle and camping industry. The organization is spearheaded by PRVCA chairman, Patrick McClure of Shoemaker and Besser Insurance Group and PRVCA executive vice president, Rebecca A. Lenington. PRVCA is also proud to sponsor America's Largest RV Show (www.largestRVshow.com) each year. The show is held annually at the HERSHEY PARK® Entertainment Complex □ GIANT CenterSM in Hershey, PA.

Explore Pennsylvania is distributed at over 40 RV shows throughout the East Coast, via the PRVCA website, at member locations, at visitor centers along the Pennsylvania Turnpike, the Northeast Extension and through Pennsylvania visitor's bureaus. For your copy Explore Pennsylvania please visit one of the above locations, call 1-888-303-2887, e-mail rvcamping@prvca.org or visit www.paRVing.com.