America's Largest RV Show Introduces Senior Citizen Day

Camp Hill, PA--- The PA RV and Camping Show held at the HERSHEY ENTERTAINMENT AND RESORTS COMPANY® in Hershey, PA on September 10 – 14th is introducing Senior Citizen Day on the opening day of the Show. Senior citizens' tickets are buy one ticket, get one free on Wednesday, September 10.

With so many retirees looking for a way to visit family and see the country, RV travel is the perfect fit. Anthropologists Dorothy and David Counts of Charlotte, N.C. concluded a study that reports that retirees full-timing in RVs are leading contented lives. They state that retirees are looking to lead their lives with freedom and independence and no longer be restricted to their homes. The freedom of coming and going with the turn of a key appeals to many. Visiting family and friends are high on the list of activities the RVers enjoy.

For those interested in full-time or extended RV travel, Bob Marx will be offering a seminar at the PA RV & Camping Show on "Extended and Full-Time RV Travel." The PA RV and Camping Show is the largest RV show in the nation with over 1300 RVs on display, and a wide variety of suppliers, vendors, and educational speakers. Shuttle service, golf car taxi service as well as a perimeter tram, will be available to transport attendees around the 1.6 million sq. ft. event and free parking is available. For more information, or to print a discount coupon for the show, visit www.largestRVshow.com. The Senior Buy One, Get One Free Ticket is not applicable to any other offers.
